Launching Your HR Career: Job Search & Readiness

Organized by the Department of MBA

Jyoti Nivas College Autonomous, Post Graduate Centre

26th August 2025 | 1:30 PM | Lecture Room 2.3

The Department of MBA at Jyoti Nivas College Autonomous organized a guest lecture on "Launching Your HR Career: Job Search & Readiness" on 26th August 2025 as part of its academic and career enrichment initiatives. The session featured Mr. Nagarajan Krishnan, General Manager, Renault Nissan Technology, as the distinguished resource person.

Mr. Nagarajan Krishnan delivered a highly insightful lecture focusing on the strategies and skills required to successfully build and launch a career in Human Resources. He emphasized the importance of resume building, personalized branding, networking, and continuous upskilling as essential tools for HR aspirants to remain competitive in the job market. He also shed light on the role of adaptability, professional ethics, and focus on credibility in shaping a successful HR career.

The session further explored the current trends in recruitment, HR technology, and global talent management practices. Students actively participated by asking questions related to job search strategies, and employer expectations.

The guest lecture proved to be highly beneficial in equipping MBA students with actionable insights on how to prepare themselves for HR roles in diverse industries. It encouraged them to align their academic learning with practical skills demanded by the market.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating Mr. Nagarajan Krishnan for his valuable time, expertise, and guidance. The session was both informative and motivational, leaving the attendees better prepared and more confident about launching their careers in HR.
