About Jyoti Nivas College Autonomous:

Founded in the year 1966 as a minority Christian college by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Tarbes, with the specific aim of providing an opportunity for higher education for young women in India, the college has been committed to the intellectual progress and spiritual development of young women from across the country and even other parts of the world. In recognition of its dedication to the cause of women's education and its commitment to excellence for these past 5 decades, the college has collected many honours and received numerous awards along the way – it is ranked among the top twenty colleges in India and the top 5 colleges in Bangalore; it was conferred with 5 star status in 1998 and 'A' Grade by NAAC for three consecutive years with the high CGPA of 3.7 on a scale of 4; In April 2014, the UGC conferred it with the status of 'College of Excellence' making it one of the top ten colleges in India and the only women's college in Karnataka to merit this recognition.

The post graduate courses commenced, with MA English, 25 years ago, in 1991 and has over time, grown to include other disciplines like MCA, MBA, M.Com (Financial Analysis) and M.Sc (Organic Chemistry).

About the Workshop: The workshop will use interactive theatre based activities to invite participants to examine the possibilities and challenges of being teachers, and explore creative options for change.

Resource person:

Dr. Radha Ramaswamy is the founder of Centre for Community Dialogue and Change in 2011 and has been, in a working life of 30 years, an English teacher, theatre researcher, dramaturg, an educational consultant to NGOs, and finally, a Theatre of the Oppressed practitioner and trainer. Since founding the CCDC, Radha has worked with diverse communities of people: children, students, women activists, teachers, teacher-trainers, Senior citizens, medical students, doctors, medical teachers and others. She has conducted numerous workshops – both short courses and multi-day sessions, in various cities in India, Nepal and the United States, mainly for those from the field of education.
