From contemplation to communion to community building - it was a process of sensitization to the needs of suffering humanity and an answer to the call to care for the sick and the abandoned. The Sisters responded to the challenge with generosity and commitment. Education soon became another field in which they were called to serve - schools and later, colleges, grew of their tireless efforts. One of the many renowned educational institutions that their labour of love gave birth to was Jyoti Nivas College, established in 1966.
