WHEREAS,

The Institutions, subject to the terms of this MoU and the laws, rules, regulations and national policies from time to time in force in the country, will endeavor to strengthen, promote and develop cooperation between the Institutions based on equality and mutual benefit.

WHEREAS,

In accordance with a mutual desire, the purpose of this agreement is to establish a framework within which academic, research, scientific cooperation and continuing education may develop between North East Institute of Social Sciences and Research (NEISSR), Dimapur, Nagaland, India, and Jyoti Nivas College (Autonomous), Bengaluru, Karnataka, India (hereafter JNC) and have come to an agreement to collaborate to achieve the following objectives:

1. Whereas this agreement shall be identified as the parent of any specific programme agreements between the parties.
2. The parties to this agreement indicate their willingness in principle to cooperate in the promotion of teaching and research activities subject to entering into a separate legal agreement where applicable. Under this agreement the types of cooperation may include:
 - 2.1 Reciprocal exchange of students;
 - 2.2 Hosting of short-term programmes;
 - 2.3 Reciprocal exchange of staff and faculty;
 - 2.4 Joint academic programmes
 - 2.5 Conduct awareness programmes about peer mediation and organize other peace related activities.
 - 2.6 Collaborative research projects;
 - 2.7 Collaborative professional faculty and staff development activities; and
 - 2.8 Other activities as mutually agreed.

I. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

This MoU will not give rise to any financial obligation by one Institution to the other.

Each Institution will bear its own cost and expenses in the implementation of this MoU. Each Institution shall bear the respective costs of carrying out the obligations under this agreement. Neither Institution shall make a claim against the other Institution for any expenditure unless such expenditure has been agreed upon in writing between the Institutions.

II. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The intellectual property rights shall be enforced by this MoU in conformity with the national rules and regulations.

- 2.1 Both Institutions shall use the other Institution's name or logo in advertisement, promotion, or sales literature within the framework of the MoU in order to promote and encourage the objectives of the agreement. Neither institution shall assign or purport to assign any right under this agreement without the prior written approval of the other Institution.

2.2 Each Institution shall bear the respective costs of carrying out the obligations under this agreement.

Neither Institution shall make a claim against the other Institution for any expenditure unless such expenditure has been agreed upon in writing between the Institutions.

2.3 Any research publications and intellectual property rights arising out of the students and joint research projects shall be jointly published and, when patented, will be jointly and equally owned by NEISSR and JNC.

2.4 The procedural formalities for securing and maintaining the intellectual property rights shall be the responsibility of both NEISSR & JNC and the expenditure incurred thereof shall be borne jointly and equally by NEISSR and JNC.

2.5 The upfront fee and royalty accrued from licensing of any intellectual property arising from this collaboration to other Institution shall be shared between the Institutions, the terms and conditions of which shall be the subject matter of a separate agreement between the Institutions. The institutions shall not assign any rights and obligations to any third Institution without written consent of the other party.

III. DESIGNATED AUTHORITIES

The objectives of this MoU will be implemented through the coordinators of both the Institutions. The persons designated to coordinate activities under this agreement will be the Principal of JNC and the Principal of NEISSR who further can designate/assign coordinators from other departments to implement specific cooperative activities as agreed upon in this MoU.

IV. STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAMME

received by the host institution and providing assistance to enrolling incoming students and serving as liaison between the two Institutions.

V. GUIDELINES

- a. Both institutions, by mutual consent will determine the number of students they may receive in any given year.
- b. The duration of exchange may be finalized upon mutual consent of both the institution.
- c. This exchange is for undergraduate and post-graduate students who have completed at least one year of undergraduate study or one semester of post graduate study, who demonstrate adequate academic preparation, maturity and emotional stability to undertake academic exchange.
- d. Exchange students shall undertake an academic programme at the host institution, whether that host institution is NEISSR or JNC as full time non - degree-seeking students.
- e. The supervision and examination of under-graduate /post-graduate exchange students shall be negotiated on an individual basis by office of the Controller of Examination at NEISSR and JNC.
- f. Exchange student's status and responsibilities:
 - i. Exchange students shall register in the courses that their home institutions approve, as long as they do not pose any challenge to the host institution. All students shall maintain full-time enrollment status.
 - ii. Participating students shall pay all applicable tuition fees at their home institution and the students shall receive these benefits at the host institution without additional charges.
 - iii. Participating students shall cover the cost of their meals and housing at host institution.
 - iv. Some classes incur extra cost for materials and/or transportation (some technology classes and some sports classes, for example); in this case, the individual student enrolled in those courses will be required to pay those additional costs.
- g. The home institution shall nominate participating students on the basis of academic merit and other criteria as may be agreed upon by both institutions. The host institution reserves the right to make final judgment on the admissibility of each student nominated by the home institution.

- h. Participating students shall maintain a full load of study as defined by the host institution. The host institution shall immediately inform the home institution, should the participating student dropout of college or stop attending classes completely.
- i. Participating students shall be given identification cards and shall have the same access to the facilities of the host institution as enjoyed by students of the host institution.
- j. At the end of the study period, the host institution shall provide the home institution with a transcript report of the courses and grades received by each student not later than six weeks after the last day of the study programme.

VI. HOSTING OF SHORT-TERM PROGRAMME

Both institutions agree to help facilitating short-term faculty-led programs in their institutions. The purpose of the short-term program will be in assisting a batch of students either from NEISSR or JNC to do short term programme/certificate programme/enrichment programme in the host institution. The programme will be designed by home institution and subsequently approved by host institution. The arrangement may include facilitating housing, meals, transportation, cultural excursions, guest lectures, expert talks, classroom sessions, meetings at relevant organizations, orientation and advice on health and safety precautions, and general on-site orientation.

The following are mutually agreed as part of Short-term exchange programme:

1. The maximum number of students for short term programme at a time is limited to 20-30.
2. A faculty member shall always accompany the group of students for short-term programme.
3. The programme structure will be discussed mutually and approved by both parties.
4. The exchange students shall bear all expenses related to housing, food, transportation, cultural excursion. But every expense related to academic inputs will be met by host institution.
5. At the end of short-term programme, host institution shall provide certificates depending upon the programme they attended.
