

Department of Tourism & Travel Management
Jyoti Nivas College Autonomous

Re-accredited by NAAC with GRADE-A
Hosur Road, Bengaluru – 560095
Phone : 080 25530137
Website : www.jyotinivas.org

Action Taken Report

Programme: UG

Year of Revision: 2017

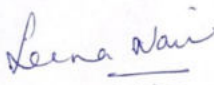

Review of syllabus of the following semesters

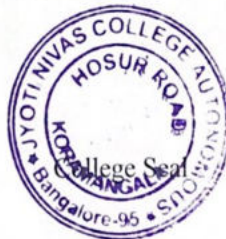

2014-2015 : I and II semester

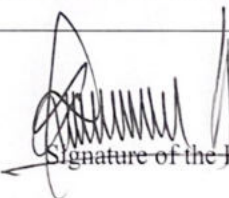

2015-2016 : III and IV semester

2016-2017 : V and VI semester

Alumni	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The course towards employability or higher education is rated as good by maximum no. of students.• They stated that continues assessment and evaluation help them for better coverage of the syllabus.
Faculty	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The syllabus provides a better exposure to the current issues of the tourism environment, country, and world through the course content.
University Nominee/Industry Experts	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Prof. M. Jamuna recommended that inclusion of the topic on architecture helps the students to have an opportunity to acquaint with the rich Indian cultural heritage.• Dr. Vijayalakshmi. K. S has suggested that "Tourism Planning and Policy" is intended to evaluate the earlier developments of Indian tourism- national, state and regional level, for an understanding of the future course of action in order to help the student for preparing tourism plan and policy of different states in India.
Parents	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The curriculum helps in inculcating research aptitude.• It helps developing innovative promotional strategies.• It enhances the entrepreneurial skills
Action Taken	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Keeping in view the need of the industry, the pilot study report has been incorporated in the syllabus of research paper.• A project on tourism business plan has been introduced to enhance entrepreneurial skill of students.• A paper on geographical destinations has been introduced to have a better understanding of tourism resources of various continents.

Signature of the Dean

Signature of the HOD.