

Young Scholar Forum 2026: Innovation and sustainability towards a Future
India: Viksit Bharat 2047

The Young Scholar Forum 2026, organized by the Department of Commerce and Management at Jyoti Nivas College Autonomous Post Graduate Centre, successfully convened on 26th February 2026 at the St. Joseph Auditorium. Centered on the visionary theme of "Innovation and Sustainability Towards a Future India: Viksit Bharat 2047," the event featured Dr. Sr. Mary Louisa S as Chief Patron and Mr. Tarun Kumar Singh, Founder of Finexure Consulting, as the Chief Guest.

A significant highlight of the forum was the participation of external scholars representing SB College of Management Studies, St. Joseph's University, and SSMRV College and other colleges who contributed diverse academic perspectives to the discussions. The forum served as a critical platform for exploring the intersection of sustainable development and management innovation, effectively fostering a collaborative environment aimed at achieving India's long-term economic and developmental goals.

In a testament to the high caliber of research presented, Ankitha Madan from Christ University was honored with the Best Paper Award, underscoring the forum's commitment to recognizing excellence in management and sustainable innovation. The event served as a critical platform for exploring the intersection of development and academic inquiry, effectively fostering a collaborative environment aimed at achieving India's long-term economic goals.
