

JYOTI NIVAS COLLEGE

Autonomous

Bengaluru , Karnataka

The Department of Economics as a part of the Social Sciences Forum organized a one-day National Seminar on the theme 'Indigenous Knowledge Systems: A Multi-disciplinary Exploration- Returning to the Roots' on September 4, 2018. The chief guest was Dr. Jeewan S. Kharakwal, and Guest of Honour Dr. Sudha Khokate. This National Seminar aimed to sensitize the youth about the Indigenous Knowledge System. This was followed by the release of Book of Abstracts by the Head of the Departments and our esteemed Chief Guests. The seminar comprised of the following sessions-- TECHNICAL SESSION 1 by Dr. Jeewan S Kharakwal on the topic "Zawar the oldest zinc production centre. TECHNICAL SESSION 2 by Dr. M Balasubramanian on the topic 'Access to natural resources of the indigenous group: A Sustainable Development Approach'. TECHNICAL SESSION 3 by Dr. Bipin Jojo, on the topic 'INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM: A TRIBAL PERSPECTIVE'. Technical Session 4 by Mrs Minnette Ranjith on the topic "Green Entrepreneurship". Technical Session 5 by Dr. Dennis Chauhan on the topic "Socio- economic empowerment programme- tribes of HD Kote". There was also a parallel session of Paper Presentation by the faculty of various colleges.

JYOTI NIVAS COLLEGE

Autonomous

Bengaluru , Karnataka

JYOTI NIVAS COLLEGE

Autonomous

Bengaluru , Karnataka

JYOTI NIVAS COLLEGE

Autonomous

Bengaluru , Karnataka

